Can you make a memory postcard inspired by Sonia Boyce?

Choose an important memory to you, one you can remember well. You can either draw this memory or write a paragraph to describe it (with some pictures if you would like!)

What Are Memory Postcards?

Imagine your postcard popped out of The Ticket Machine.

What would your postcard say or show?

Think about:

- an important day
- important people in your life
- embarrassing moments
- leaving your home country
- when you last cried
- learning to do something for the first time
- family holidays
- funny memories
- starting school
- a special place
- a proud moment
- moving house
- moving school

Choose an important memory, moment or experience.

1. Choose an important memory, moment or experience.

2. Jot down:

who was there where it was what happened
why you did it when it happened
how it is important to you now

3. DECIDE:

whether you are going to draw your memory or write your memory.
